Fine Hardin County Farm to be Sold at Public Sale on Friday, May 15th

The farm and all personal property of the late John J. Rider, located near Sonora, Ky., on the main line of the L. & N. R. R., 55 miles south of Louisville, Ky., will be sold, for the purpose of winding up the estate. The farm is well improved, has a 10-room 2-story brick residence, is well stocked in every way and the work has been kept up so that it is ready for the purchaser to take hold and go right ahead with the crops. This is one of the prettiest and best farms in the country, and anybody looking for a farm in Kentucky should see it before buying. For further particulars address G. T. RIDER, care Scanlon Coal Co., Louisville, Ky.

Lige Spoonamore, of the East End, sold R. C. Arnold a cow for $30. J. O. Spratt sold to J. J. Allen, of the West End, Monday a young Jersey bull for $25. This animal has the making of a good one in him.

At LaGrange, Saturday, Kelly Johnson bought from Giltner Bros., a fine young Holstein bull for which he paid $150.

At Riddles Mills, this week, Henry Paynter sold a sow and eight pigs to Sam Blackburn for $80.

J. T. Blankenship, of Todd, Pulaski county, drove through Monday a couple of sows and 14 pigs, which he sold to Jack Beasley, on the Danville pike, for $50. They were good ones, too.

Logan Huston, of Green Gosholt, of Waynesburg, a flock of ten shaggy ewes last week, for which he paid $35. He put them on grass at his farm on the Lancaster pike.

Will Matheny sold a nice 1000-pound steer to J. B. Barkley, near Shelby City, at seven and a half cents a pound. Mr. Matheny has engaged a bunch of 30 hogs to F. W. Jones at eight and a quarter cents a pound. He thinks they will weigh 200 or better when delivered.

Shel Oatts, the hustling Boyle stock trader and dealer, was here Monday, looking for some stock, but the market was so short that he didn't buy. He recently bought a couple of nice beefers from C. K. Martin, of Danville, for which he paid $75. He sold to John R. Yeager, of Danville, a bunch of ten steers at $36 a head. The beefers averaged about 450 pounds each. Mr. Oatts bought a couple of sows and pigs at a high price last week.

Walter Martin, a well-known Turnersville farmer, has engaged to T. W. Jones, of Stanford, for delivery the last ten days in May a bunch of nine hogs, which will go at eight and a quarter cents a pound. Mr. Martin believes that they will average about 200 pounds when put on the shipping scales. Richard Cooper, of the same section, has engaged a drove of 15 to Mr. Jones to go at the same time at the same figure. K. L. Martin has engaged him a couple at the same and J. J. Seavers will deliver him three that will probably go over 200 pounds in weight.

R. K. Young, the dairymen stock dealer, for once in his life came up to court day Monday without a drove of steers. He says the market in Adair and the lower counties has practically been cleaned out. Mr. Young was on the lookout for some nice ponies here, where he recently bought one of A. T. Nunneley for $75. He wanted them spotted and after looking over the fine bunch at the home of Smith Baughman, out on the Somerset pike, he paid Mr. Baughman $270 for three, two mares and a horse. Mr. Young also bought a rig in which his eight-year-old son will drive the pretty little things.

R. C. Arnold bought eight 150-pound hogs of Les Withers, out on the Lancaster pike at seven and a fourth cents per pound.

Will McCormack, out on the Millledgeville pike, sold to R. C. Arnold, ten head of hogs weighing 140 pounds at 7 1/4 cents per pound.

W. P. Logan, out on the Lancaster pike sold eight 170-pound hogs at 1 1/4 cents per pound and a steer for $40, to R. C. Arnold.

Edward H. Blake, Centertown, purchased from James Carrick, of Scott county, a bunch of 900-pound cattle at $7.50 a hundred.

J. E. Richards, Jr., of Decatur, Ga., has an egg laid by a Black Java pullet barely a year old that weighs four ounces and measures 6 1/2 inches in circumference.

E. Boardman, of near Little Rick, bought last week, from various Bourbon farmers, 2,300 fleeces of wool at 25 cents a hundred.

Walter Harrison, a well-known farmer of near Lebanon, recently sold to McDowell, of Boyle county, a carload of nice cattle. The price paid is said to have been between $6.00 and $6.20 per 100 pounds.

C. B. Walls, of Paris, has sold to Geo. Reynolds, of same place, the six year old saddle mare, Dolly Stamps 7344. She is by Crown Prince 2626, out of a daughter of Ringo's King.

BOSSEAU
I will stand my fine registered Percheron Bosseau at my farm on the Stanford and Hustonville pike, one mile East of Hustonville for the season of 1914 at.

$15 TO INSURE A LIVE COLT
Bosseau is a fine big boned animal, weighs 2,060 pounds, and is just the kind to breed to, to get your big mule mares.

R. L. BERRY, Hustonville, Ky.

Bay, left hind foot white, 16 hands high, foaled 1910. Will make the season of 1914 at my stable on the Stanford and Shelby City pike, six miles from Stanford at $10 to insure a living colt. No service on Sunday.

L. H. MESSER, Stanford, Kentucky.

Sallow complexion is due to a torpid liver. HERBINE purifies and gives the liver and bowels strength and restores the rosy bloom of health to the cheek. Price 35c. Sold by Shugart's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Glen Brook
A HIGH GRADE STALLION

My high bred five-year-old Chestnut Sorrel Stallion will make the Season of 1914 at my barn on the old fair grounds at Hustonville, Ky. He is 16 hands high weighs 1,200 pounds. He will serve a limited number of mares at $15 to insure a living colt, season due when mare is parted with, or leaving the county. This stallion is by Ashland Brook and out of standard bred trotting mare. He has proven to be a great breeder, having his colts to show for him. His colts are all saddle colts, with good style and action. Call and see a good horse before breeding time comes.

JIM REED
I will also stand the great mule jack Jim Reed, the well known mule jack by the old jack of Jim Reed's. Having sold his colts at $100 at weaning time and is a fine breeder, having colts to show for him here. He has a large bone and his colts have good bone and style. He will stand at $10 to insure a living colt. Money due when mare is parted with or left the county.

B. W. LEIGH, Hustonville, Ky.

Two Great Stallions
Standing at Hustonville

I will stand the two great draft horses WATZMAN and FRENCH for the season of 1914 at my farm near Hustonville, at the low sum of $10 each to insure a living colt.

Watzman is an imported German coach horse. He sold for $3,000 originally. I have used him two seasons and his colts show for themselves what he can do, all coming large size and with lots of style. His colts show too well what he does, to need an extended description.

French is a Percheron, and a Company horse originally and sold for $2,400. I bought him in Metcalfe county, where he has done splendid work in the stud. He produces splendid colts, the big stylish fellows with fine bone and shape. He will attract attention anywhere and is the kind of a breeder owners of mares are looking for. He weighs 1,800 pounds and gets colts like him.

I also have two or three fine, big mule breeding jacks which I will also stand at $12 and $10.

J. K. Baughman, Hustonville, Ky.

Samson
Registered Percheron Stallion 78668
This is a splendid type of the breed. Black with star in forehead. Foaled May 25th, 1910.

SLIKE—The great Percheron horse, Sam, 25055 (54608) an imported horse from France, a winner at the International at Chicago; also twice winner at Virginia State Fair, tipping the scales at 2450 pounds.

DAM—Mason Girl, Registry No. 48989. A beautiful black mare weighing 1800.

He will make the season at my farm at Knoblick Station, Lincoln county better known as the "Sowell Givens farm," at

$10 to insure a Living Foal
Money due when colt is foaled, mare traded or removed from country.

Care taken to prevent accidents, but no responsible should occur.

The "Dazey" Churn.
Mr. W. H. Higgins:
The Churn I bought from you has the right name. It is the most satisfactory article a housekeeper can own. It churns quickly, gathers the butter nicely. I cheerfully recommend it to all housekeepers. The "Dazey" saves time, labor and money. Very respectfully,
Mrs. James Messer.
